Rules: (All wrestlers are guaranteed two matches)

- Matches will consist of a single three minute period.
- Takedowns are the standard two points. However, you may earn one bonus point for taking your opponent down directly to their back (back exposed).
- Once a takedown has been scored, the clock will stop. Wrestlers will reset and the clock will start again.
- The wrestler with the most points scored at the end of the period will be the winner.
- If at any time one wrestler is ahead by ten points or more, the match will end and the winner will be declared via a "technical fall."
- Overtime Procedures: A) One minute sudden death period will be wrestled. B) If the score is still tied at the end of the sudden death period, the winner will be the wrestler who had the most takedowns in the match. C) If both wrestlers have the same number of take downs, the winner will be the one with the most bonus points. D) If still tied, the winner will be decided by a coin flip.
